

If the K-LOVE signal were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming I and houndreds of thousands of people would be missing out on a valuable source of music and information and encouragement.